

Ms. Dulee Hembram

Dulee Hembram is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Santali, Vidyasagar University. She completed her Masters' Degree in Santali from the Department of Tribal and Regional Language, Ranchi University in 2001. She is interested in encouraging more students to understand the Santali language from a widened cultural, historical and literary perspective. She actively participates in workshops and seminars concerning the Santali way of life. She is also interested in the Olchiki script.