

Dr. Sumahan Bandyopadhyay

Sumahan Bandyopadhyay is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Anthropology, Vidyasagar University. He obtained his M.Sc. with specialization in Social – Cultural Anthropology from University of Calcutta. He was 1st Class First (Gold Medallist) in M.Sc. He was awarded Ph.D. from Viswa – Bharati in 2007. He is also the Coordinator of the M.Phil. Programme in Adivasi Studies in Vidyasagar University. He is the Editor-in-Chief for Man In India, the Managing Editor for The Indian Journal of Anthropology and the Associate Managing Editor for the Journal of the Indian Anthropological Society. He was formerly a Research Officer for the Indian Anthropological Society and is a Fellow in the Anthropological Survey of India. He has been a guest faculty in University of Calcutta (Anthropology), Rabindra Bharati University(Museology), PG Department of Bengali, Women’s College (University of Calcutta) and West Bengal State University. His research interests include history of anthropology, theoretical anthropology, anthropology of religion and art, development anthropology and folklore with many other related issues. He has published five books and more than 40 papers in national and international journals including Anthropological Notebooks, Asian Ethnology, The Oriental Anthropology (Sage) etc.