

Information for Authors

Unpublished papers, written either in English or in Bengali can be considered. Two clear copies of the MS should be submitted along with a soft copy. The first page of the MS should contain author's name, article title and folio heading. The author's institutional affiliation should appear at the end of the article.

A brief abstract and keywords of paper must accompany each MS.

The suggested length of the article is about 10-15 typed papers (double space) including notes, references, etc; leaving a sufficient margin of all sides end notes and references should be used sparingly, and typed in double space on a separate sheet diagrams, figures etc. can be used provided they are a must. Unusual symbols should be identified in the margin and an alternative or equivalent symbol or sign should be provided if the one required is rare. The use of italics is to be indicated by single underlining, bold face by wavy underlining.

The worlds and / or citations from Sanskrit or any language other than English should be in Roman Script, fully italicized and with accurate standard diacritical marks.

Generally the Editors, with consultation and final opinion of the advisory Editors, are able to reach a decision about the publication of any paper in three to four months, which is communicated to the author subsequently. Authors are requested to avoid needless correspondence.

Philosophy and the Life-world welcomes papers in all areas of Philosophy, History of Philosophy and Philosophy of Indian Origin. The thrust areas are Applied / Practical Philosophy and Indian Philosophy. It is interested in persistent, resolute inquiries into basic questions of philosophy regardless of writer's affiliations.
