Resolution

The Executive Council of Vidyasagar University noted that Ms. Mouli Pratihari was a Part-III student in B.A. (Hons.) in Geography at Sukumar Sengupta Mahavidyalaya under this University in the year 2013. The Executive Council also noted that after publication of her result she got 32 marks in paper 8th (practical paper). She applied to the University under RTI rules for her unexpected marks in the said practical paper. Thereafter the University authority on the basis of her application informed her that her marks in the said paper has come to 53 and accordingly the candidate was issued the fresh marksheet. The Executive Council noted further that Ms. Pratihari received the change marksheet from the University on 06.09.2013. For this reason she could not admit herself in the P.G. Course in Geography in this University within the stipulated time. In this connection she has requested to consider her application and to permit her for admission into the said course in the session 2013-2014 without losing any year.

After thorough discussion and careful consideration of the application dated 16.09.2013 submitted by Ms. Mouli Pratihari, a student of Sukumar Sengupta Mahavidyalaya, Keshpur in connection with permission for admission into the Postgraduate course in Geography and Environment Management at Vidyasagar University for the academic session 2013-2014 it was resolved that Ms. Pratihari be permitted for admission into the said course at this University for this year only. Agenda No. – 24

To consider the letter bearing No. VU/CL/ADM(FO)/195/13 dated 18.09.2013 submitted by the Deputy Librarian, Central Library in connection with placement of a repeat order for purchase of twelve number of Book Stacks.

Resolution

The Executive Council of Vidyasagar University noted the letter bearing No. VU/CL/ADM(FO)/195/13 dated 18.09.2013 submitted by the Deputy Librarian, Central Library stating that due to shortage of space, there was no other way but to expand the stack room to the ground floor to accommodate new and forthcoming books. At present they have converted the periodical section in the ground floor to one stack room where about twenty four book stacks can be arranged. Ten book stacks have already been arranged in that room. Now they need more stacks for new books. The Executive Council also noted that they purchased the book stacks from M/s. Nexus Furniture about 3 months ago. In this connection a repeat order may be placed to M/s. Nexus Furniture on the basis of that rate. The Executive Council noted further that the total cost involvement for 12 such book stacks is Rs.1,87,272/- (including all taxes). This amount will be spent from the Infrastructural Fund under the last year's State Book Grant.

After careful consideration of the letter of the Deputy Librarian, Central Library in connection with placement of a repeat order for purchase of twelve number of Book Stacks it was resolved that twelve number of Book Stacks be purchased from M/s. Nexus Furniture with the same rate as was supplied by them earlier. It was also resolved that the Finance Officer be requested to take necessary steps to fix up one year rate contract for different activities.
